Commissioned Ministry Manual

Christian Church in Indiana (Disciples of Christ)
COMMISSIONED MINISTRY: AN OVERVIEW AND APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Introduction. Commissioned ministry is an office of ministry of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). The qualifications for the office are described in the Policies and Criteria for the Order of Ministry and in the Commission on Ministry Manual. Generally speaking, it is an office recognized and endorsed for persons who have gifts and personal qualities for ministries, but have not attained a Master of Divinity degree in preparation for ministry.

Persons who meet the qualifications and who have been called to a position with a church, or a church-related agency, are issued a commission, usually on an annual basis. Commissioned ministers are required to participate in an annual review for the purpose of renewing the commission. Persons newly entering Commissioned ministry are strongly encouraged to enter into a mentor relationship with an ordained pastor for support, study, and spiritual and professional growth. All Commissioned ministers are strongly encouraged to engage in on-going programs of study and renewal.

The process of review for the recognition and endorsement of commissioned ministry is conducted by Nurture & Certification teams of the Commission on Ministry. They meet periodically to conduct the annual review and interview and review applicants.

Application Procedures. Persons interested in attaining recognition and endorsement for commissioned ministry are asked to complete the following:

1. Contact the Regional Office to (a) receive application materials; and (b) set up an interview with the associate regional minister who works with the Commission on Ministry.

2. Submit a letter of call or intent to call for a ministerial position from a church or church agency.

3. Complete all application materials and reference requirements

4. Meet with a Nurture and Certification team for a review of the application

5. Following completion of the application materials and interview with the associate regional minister and the Nurture and Certification team, the Commission on Ministry will receive the action of the team to grant or deny a commission.

6. If approved for commissioned ministry, participation in the annual review process is required to maintain standing.
COMMISSIONED MINISTRY CHECKLIST

Following are the items to be completed prior to your interview with the Commissioned Ministry Nurture and Certification Team. The items are to be in the Regional Office thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled interview.

1. Commissioned Ministry Application;

2. 4 Reference Forms;

3. Statement Concerning Ministerial Call - 500 words

5. Recent picture

6. Academic Transcript (when requested);

7. Personal Information Schedule;

8. Have an interview with the associate regional minister who works with the Commission on Ministry, prior to meeting with a Nurture and Certification Team.

9. Letter from congregation/agency requesting commissioning including job title and a brief job description.

For your information and use, a copy of the Disciples reading/resource list is enclosed.
EXCERPTS FROM THE COMMISSION ON MINISTRY MANUAL

1. Commissioned Ministry

a. Description. Commissioned ministers are persons upon whom the church confers authority to minister in specific situations for a specific time, usually one year. These persons shall be called by God and the church shall confirm that these persons have the faith, abilities, qualities, and preparation needed for their specific ministry. Commissioned ministry is of three types: student ministry, congregational ministry, and specialized ministry.

1) Commissioned Student Minister. Commissioned student ministers are persons who are enrolled in a seminary degree program and who have a covenantal relationship with a congregation or church agency. Ordinarily these persons are preparing for ordination.

2) Commissioned Congregational Minister. Commissioned congregational ministers are persons who have a covenantal relationship with a congregation to provide general ministerial functions. These persons are not ordinarily seeking ordination.

3) Commissioned Specialized Minister. Commissioned specialized ministers are persons who are not seeking ordination but are certified to perform a specialized function of ministry such as music ministry, counseling, and administration. These persons shall demonstrate that they have the proper training and skills to provide for the specialized ministry. These persons shall have a covenantal relationship with a congregation or agency.

b. Application for Commissioned Ministry. Persons may apply for commissioned ministry status through the Commission. Applications for licensing are available through the regional office. Applicants shall meet the following criteria:

1) The person shall demonstrate a definite and informed decision, in response to God, to serve in the order of ministry;

2) The person shall be a participating member of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ);

3) The person shall provide a written endorsement of his or her candidacy for commissioned ministry through official action of the congregation or agency with whom the person seeks to do ministry.

4) The person shall have at least a high school diploma or equivalent.

5) The person shall demonstrate maturity and leadership potential.

6) The person shall meet with the Regional Ministry Staff for a personal interview prior to meeting with a Nurture and Certification Team.

7) The person shall complete the information schedules, supply references and provide other information required by the Commission.
8) The person shall meet with a Nurture and Certification Team for review of his or her application for commissioned ministry.

9) The person shall be assigned to and meet with a mentor and peer group at least three (3) times per year.

c. General Qualifications. The following qualifications are expected of persons who seek to serve as commissioned ministries:

1) Faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior;

2) Commitment to a life of Christian discipleship, and show potential for leadership in the Christian community;

3) Personal fitness sufficient to the demands of the office, including mental and physical capacities, emotional stability and maturity, and sound ethical and moral character.

d. Response to Persons Seeking to be Commissioned Ministers. The Nurture and Certification Team shall take one of the following actions and report to the Commission concerning each application for commissioned ministry:

1) Recommend the person be granted commissioning and standing.

2) Recommend the person be taken under care either with or without privilege of call.

3) Recommend the person not be taken under care, but continue the application process. Ask the applicant for more information and additional interview time.

4) Recommend the application not be approved when, in the team’s judgment, it appears the person cannot, in the foreseeable future, fulfill the requirements for commissioned ministry.

e. Authorization for Commissioned Ministry. The authorization for commissioned ministry is through the Commission and the specific congregation or church-related organization with which the person has a covenantal relationship.

f. Periodic Review. All commissioned ministers shall engage in periodic review of their ministry. Ordinarily this shall be done annually. The Commission shall ordinarily conduct the review through its Nurture and Certification Teams. The review will entail both written reports and a personal interview. Persons failing to engage in a periodic review may lose their commission and standing.

g. Educational Requirements. Persons entering commissioned ministry are expected to engage in educational preparation and participate in continuing education programs to facilitate the integration of the theological awareness and the functions of ministry. These programs shall ordinarily include, but not be limited to: Biblical studies, church history [including the history and polity of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)], personal and social ethics, clergy ethics [including Sexual Misconduct Prevention Seminar], theology, and practical ministry.
[e.g. preaching, teaching, pastoral care, worship, church organizational management, stewardship, and evangelism].

h. Professional and Personal Development. The person shall be able to demonstrate sufficient development for the practice of ministry in the following areas:

1) Skills in human relations, such as getting along with people, ability to accept criticism, and ability to manage conflict constructively.

2) Strength of character, such as self-esteem, integrity, security, poise, confidence, self-motivation, and spiritual depth.

3) The ability to manage personal finances effectively.

4) The ability to manage time effectively.

5) The ability to lead an organization effectively.
